- 9:30 - 9:45 a.m.      Break
- 9:45 - 10:30 a.m.      Procurement Process & Department of Defense Produce Program
This session will discuss required procurement practices for FFVP, with special attention paid to applying geographic preferences. Information on the Department of Defense Produce Program will also be provided.

PRESENTER: Team Staff, Food Distribution, Michigan Department of Education
- 10:30 - 11 a.m.      Break
- 11 - 11:30 a.m.      Farm to School
Looking for ways to use more Michigan produce in your schools? This session will show participants how to utilize local produce in schools, provide information about the Farm to School program and show schools how to be proactive with food safety and nutrition when connecting with farmers.

PRESENTER: Julia Smith, Center for Regional Food Systems, MSU
- 11:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.      Free Nutrition Education with Michigan Harvest of the Month™
Learn how Michigan Harvest of the Month™ resources are the ideal nutrition education compliment to FFVP – all at no charge to your district!

PRESENTER: Jamie Rahrig, Michigan Fitness Foundation
- 12:00 - 12:15 p.m.      Wrap-up/Questions and Answers/Closing Remarks

Please Note:

- Reasonable costs for attending this training are billable to the FFVP grant ONLY if you have the early allocation (for July-September 2014). If you're not sure if you have this, please check your 2015 FFVP MEGS+ application and go to "Site Listing."
- Electronic versions of both the training and training binder will be made available on the FFVP page of the School Nutrition Programs website by the end of August 2014.
